

*New - Position Available! (Urban Planner)

This is a salaried professional position with the Washington County Soil Conservation District (WCSCD) involving the technical review of Soil Erosion and Sediment Control Plans, Sensitive Area Reviews, as well as, prerequisite work for Small Pond reviews, working with landowners to develop Agricultural Waste Management Plans, Pollinator Projects, Conservation Planning, and other conservation related initiatives. Work involves conducting meetings on construction sites, residences, farms, and office work. Salary range $45,000 - $50,000 commensurate with qualifications and experience; excellent benefit package, to include, Health Insurance, Retirement, Holidays, Paid Vacation...

Submit current resume, completed application form, and a cover letter to:

Washington County Soil Conservation District, 1260 Maryland Avenue, Suite 101, Hagerstown, MD 21740 or via employment@conservationplace.com. Resumés, applications, and cover letter will be accepted through May 15, 2026 at 4:30 p.m. An equal opportunity employer.

(Consideration will not be given to those not submitting all required documents)